Complaint under Section 18(f) of Right to Information Act, 2005

Sir,

This is with reference to the complaint dated Feb 16, 2009, filed before you relating to difficulties faced by an applicant in assessing information from the various High Courts in the country due to procedural technicalities and complexities in the method and mode of payment of prescribed application fees. (Copy attached)

Subsequently, as desired by your office on July 29, 2009, we had filed separate complaints against High Courts of Allahabad, Karnataka, Jaipur, Bombay, Calcutta, Patna and Jabalpur and these were submitted to your office on August 6, 2009. (Copies attached).

In our aforesaid complaint dated Feb 16, 2009, we had requested you to kindly have the RTI rules framed by various High Courts examined with a view to rectifying the deviations from the letter and spirit of the RTI Act, 2005. We had also pleaded that it be ensured that High Courts proactively provide information on matters of public interest such as mounting backlog of cases in the Courts.

It is therefore requested that appropriate directions in this regard may please be passed urgently.

Yours sincerely,

Sarvesh Sharma
